Indonesia has 34 province. The capital city is Jakarta. Indonesia consist of district native ethnic and linguistic groups. The largest-and politically dominant- ethnic groups are the Javanese. A share identity has developed, defined by anational language, ethic diversity, religious pluralism within a Muslim-majority population, and a history of colonialism and rebellion against it. Indonesia's national motto, "Bhinneka Tunggal Ika" ("Unity in Diversity" literally, "many yet one"), articulates the diversity that shapes country.

About Bangka Belitung

The Bangka Belitung Island from Indonesia province off the east coast of Sumatra. Small islets surround the 2 main islands, Bangka and Belitung

Sandy beach with large granite rock, formations include Tanjung Tinggi Beach on Belitung island. Belitung's Tanjung Kelayang beach is jumping-off points for Lengkuas Island, with its coral reef, colorful fish and colonial Dutch-built lighthouse

About The Project

The name of the project "Little World in Bangka Belitung" was taken because Bangka Belitung has a famous tourist icon from various countries but not yet known by people. Little World in Bangka Belitung supports "Life on Land" which promotes the implementation of sustainable management of all types of forest, halt deforestation, restore degraded forest and substantially increase afforestation and reforestation globally.
